March, 2007

STOP! Remember Corvette Expo on March 17, 2007 – Knoxville, TN
Of Course We're Eating! Meet at Cracker Barrel at Exit 8 (Morristown)
at 8:00 a.m. for breakfast. We will plan to leave Cracker Barrel about 9:00 a.m.
(and no earlier) for those who don't want to eat. We'll travel down as a club and have a fun filled day of fellowship, food, and cars!

Praises: Bill Brinkley was at the March meeting following hip surgery. Bill, it's great to see you back out and about!

Carolyn Taylor remarkably was able to be at the March meeting following some surgery the Friday before.

Glenn and Linda's triplets granddaughters are doing well.

Prayer Requests: Remember Doug's sister, Belinda Tweed, is still in a coma following an automobile accident December 12, 2006.

Others in the club that are dealing with challenges of aging parents and their care.

All club members – let's lift up one another because we're all in need of prayer and God's presence in our lives.

A big heart-felt welcome to our newest members....

Gary and Lisa Thieloldt!!

If you're interested in a 1999 Convertible, Pewter Grey, Gary has one for sale! Call him on his cell at 423-972-3464. (Rumors are he'll be getting a NEW one)
